New!!!

TKT – Teaching Knowledge Test Young Learners

SATURDAY 25th September 2010

14 .00 – 18.00

organised by the British Council Milan

The British Council and Cambridge ESOL examinations are looking for volunteer Primary and Scuola Media teachers to sit the new TKT module for teachers of Young Learners TKT – Teaching Knowledge Test. This pre-test forms a crucial part of the routine development process employed by Cambridge for all their exams. Please note that it is not the official exam and no certificate will be issued but all participants will receive scores and detailed feedback on their performance from the University of Cambridge within four weeks. This is an ideal opportunity for teachers with English of B1/B2 level to try the exam for themselves perhaps with a view to sitting the real TKT exam at some point in the future. Please complete the form overleaf if you would like to participate or email: esami.milano@britishcouncil.it. We will contact you by email with the venue details. For more information regarding the content of this new TKT module please visit www.teachers.cambridgeesol.org/ts/teachingqualifications/tkty/

The performance of the candidates will be analysed by the University of Cambridge as part of the pre-testing procedure that every Cambridge exam paper regularly undergoes in order to ensure the reliability and validity of the exams from session to session. All results will be treated in confidence. They will not be published and will be sent to each individual candidate at their home address.
